

You are invited to join the

Pacific Northwest Interfaith Peace Walk

Honoring Rev. Martin Luther King Jr.'s Dream of

Investing in Peace and Justice &
Defeating Racism and Militarism

Friday, January 15, 2016

Starting at Indian Island (9:00am) and walking to Port Townsend (12.7 mi.).

Every step is a prayer for peace.

Walk a little or walk a lot, it's up to you. Or simply stand by the road and show your support for the Peace Procession as they walk by.

All participants and supporters (whether you've been part of the walk or not) are welcome to come to a potluck dinner that evening to celebrate our deep yearning for peace and justice at 6:00pm at the Port Townsend Friends (Quaker) Meeting House – 1841 Sheridan St.

This Peace Walk is part of a longer peace walk that will begin at the Nipponzan Myohoji Dojo (Buddhist Temple) on Bainbridge Island on January 13th and after Port Townsend will go via Edmonds to Seattle in time to become part of the MLK Day march on Monday, January 18th. The Walk will be led by Senji Kanaeda and Brother Gilberto Perez of the Nipponzan Myohoji Dojo, who are very experienced at leading long distance walks for peace and justice.
